One fair form arises still, Filling all my soul with gladness, Charming me from every ill. Looking westward, sat I dreaming In the fading light of day,

Till again I saw the gleaming Of a church spire far away, And the people, happy-hearted, Going through the open door:-You, a bride, that day departed And my heart was bruised and sore.

"Hope springs ever in the breast," And there came a brighter morrow Where my soul found peace and rest, While my hands toiled for another, Fairer than the blush of morn, When the mist sprites kiss each other And the dew is on the corn.

Youth is strong to turn from sorrow,

All is past, and death has only Left, of old friends, you and me; Ah! why should we wander lonely, Sorrowing by a shoreless sea? Age should never chill affections, Love survives both time and tide: Urge me not some trite objection, Hasten to me; be my bride.

Spring shall come with sprouting willows, Streams shall thaw and maples bloom, ad the warm south air in billows now above the winter's tomb; Barbells swinging, robins singing, and the noise of bleating herds

New Orleans Girls Made Happy. [New Orleans Picayune.]

On New Year's Day a Boston lady who is now in New Orleans, went by way of the river to the exposition. On the boat was a party of four young girls and a matron, all strangers. One of the young girls gazed earnestly at the Boston lady and then said: "Please excuse me, and the Company will be taken of Live Stock, but the Company will not assume any risk of accident.

SAM'L G. WILDER, President you have on?" "It is an India shawl."
"And what did it cost?" "About $2,000?" "Madam, will you be so kind as to let me show it to my companions? Neither they nor I have ever seen an India shawl before." The lady kindly agreed and the girls were made happy.

How a Beston Girl Expressed It.

A Horse! a Horse! My Kingdom for a Horse,-[King Richard.

RECORD, 2:274. Having purchased this celebrated Stallion from MR. JAMES CAMPBELL, I hereby notify the public that he will stand the present season at my headquarters, corner of Punchbowl and Queen streets (Captain Cluney's). Terms for the season, $50; to insure,

Description. Venture is a rich chestnut color, 16 hands high, and weighs about 1,100 pounds. In structure he is the picture of great muscular power, and in appearance, temperament and disposition, he is faultless. Full of fire and gentleness, he is without speck or blemish. As a stock horse he is having extraordinary success; his numerous progeny, both in California and in this country, attest this fact, several of them being able to trot low down, and one of his daughters (Venus) can trot in 2:25. Venus is also the dam of Transit, which is said to be the most promising two-year-old in California. He trotted a mile last Pedigree. Venture, chestnut horse, foaled in 1863, bred by Henry Williamson, Esq., Oakland, California; by Belmont, he by American Boy, he by Seagull, he by Import Expedition.

1st dam, Miss Mostyn, by American Boy, Jr. 2d dam, by Kenner's Gray Medoc.
3d dam, Imported Lady Mostyn, by Teniers.
4th dam, Invalid, by Whisker.
5th dam, Helen, by Hambletonian.

season, as a yearling, in 2:45.

6th dam, Susan, by Overton. 7th dam, Drowsy, by Drone, 8th dam, by Old England. 9th dam, by Cullen Arabian. 10th dam, Miss Cade, by Cade. 11th dam, Miss Makeless, by son of Greyhound.

Belmont, by American Boy. 1st dam, Imported Prunella, by Comus. 2d dam, by Partisan. 3d dam, Pawn, by Trumpator. 4th dam, Prunella, by Highflyer.

5th dam, Promise, by Snap. 6th dam, Julia, by Blank. 7th dam, Spectator's dam, by Partner. 8th dam, Bonny Lass, by Bay Bolton. 9th dam, by Darley's Arabian.

10th dam, by Byerly Turk.
11th dam, by Taffolet Barb.
12th dam, by Place's White Turk.
13th dam, Natural Barb Mare. In offering the services of this horse to the public I make one claim for him, which that he is the highest bred trotting stallion in the world, living or dead, and in support of this claim I am willing to submit it to any authority that can be obtained, and if he is not, then I will forfeit all my claims to horse knowledge. It will be seen that his pedigree represents a union of the purest blood of the English and American thoroughbred racer. one of his grand dams, as also one of his great grand dams, being imported from England to the United States. When Venture was on the turf, about eight years ago, he was at that time the sensational horse of the Pacific Coast, and the sporting papers in the East, that were always so much opposed to running blood in the trotter, commenced picking away at his pedigree, trying to find a cold cross in it, at the same time declaring that it was simply impossible for a strictly thoroughbred horse to trot as fast as he was that it was simply impossible for a strictly thoroughored horse to trot as last as he was then trotting; but at last they had to give it up, and admitted the fact that he was a strictly thoroughbred horse, but declared him a phenomenon, and were unable to account for his great speed at the trotting gait. But the fame of his sire, old Belmont, is almost world-wide, and it is a well-known fact his blood nicked better with the trotting families than that of any other thoroughbred horse ever known, as, in addition to Venture, two other thoroughbred sons of his, Capt. Webster and Owen Dale, were said to have possessed great speed at the trot. Besides these, he sired the dams of Belle Echo, 2:20; Flora Shepherd, 2:30; Monarch, 2:28; Nelly Patchen, 2:27¹4; Rustic, 2:30; which is a showing that a great many of the best trotting bred horses cannot equal. Mr. Patrick Farrell, who is one of the most experienced drivers on the Pacific Coast, told me the last time that I saw him, that Venture was the fastest trotter that he ever pulled a line over, and that if his temper had not been soured in his youth by bad handling, he believed that he would have equaled, it not surpassed, all the records ever made, and that he could show a two-minute gait with him to a wagon, but in company he would become wild, on account of his hot blood, and was often beaten by horses that could hardly run as fast as he could trot. His record of 2:27 4, which was no measure of his speed, was made at the Oakland track in 1877, in a race which he won, beating Alexander, Gus, General Beno and

It is thought by some people that an aged horse is not as good a producer as a young one, but no greater mistake could possibly be made. Indeed, the opposite is claimed by many large breeders, and instances are so numerous of horses siring their best foals at an advanced age that the above theory has long ago been exploded. Imported Diomed was twenty-seven years old when he sired Sir Archy, his best son; Bonnie Scotland, who died only a few years ago, sired Luke Blackburn and George Kinney, by far the best of his get, after he was twenty-five; Imported Leamington sired Iroquois, his best son, the last year REWARD OF $250 WILL BE PAID FOR | that he lived, at twenty-five. Among trotters may be mentioned Volunteer, the sire of A information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who, on the evening of the 25th instant, tampered with the calling wires of the Hawalian Bell Telephone.

GODFREY BROWN, past season, and the other one is said to be equally as fast.

With these facts before us, it is plain that the age of a horse has nothing to do with his success as a sire. I think myself that there is a great deal in the condition that a horse is kept, for an animal that is well fed and cared for, with plenty of exercise, will beget better foals than one that is turned loose and never stabled or fed grain. Venture is twenty-two years old this spring, and with the care that I intend to give him, I expect him to sire better foals than he ever has before. He is a remarkably sure breeder. Mr. Campbell assures me that he has never bred a mare to him yet that did Office next door to the HONOLULU LIBRARY, not produce a foal, and his many beautiful colts, now on Mr. C.'s ranch, are worth a long journey to see; and now as he is to be kept so convenient to the general public, no one owing a good mare should be so blind to their own interest as to neglect the opportunity of obtaining his blood while they have the chance.

For any additional particulars apply at Punchbowl and Queen streets. C. B. MILES, Proprietor. Honolulu, April 10, 1885.
